LOCATION

Crescent House occupies a prominent position within a well-established retail parade on the southern side of Orpington, near Green Street Green. The area offers a combination of local shops, cafes, takeaways and good quality residential properties.

The parade benefits from strong visibility, consistent footfall and convenient access to local amenities. Orpington station provides fast and frequent services into Central London.

DESCRIPTION

Built in the 1950's the property provides a combination of ground floor retail units and self-contained residential accommodation above, offering a secure and diversified income stream.

The ground floor double unit is occupied by the Co-Op with the single unit being occupied by Wishwash Launderette. The retail units also occupy most of the rear yard within their demise.
